What Is Energy Go Stix?

Energy Go Stix Kiwi Strawberry gives you a boost of energy and stamina to help you push through your busy day.* In convenient single-serve packets, Energy Go Stix is perfect to share and take with you wherever you go.

Energy Go Stix improves memory and alertness and supports healthy immune system function. This formula is rich in energy sources like green tea extract and amino acids that help you avoid the spike and crash that happen with other energy products. It also contains 4Life Transfer Factor® to support your immune system.*

Key Features

- Contains transfer factors to help educate immune cells and promote the immune system's ability to more effectively recognize, respond to, and remember potential health threats*
- Blends energy boosters like yerba mate, guarana, green tea extract, and three forms of ginseng*
- Supports weight management efforts with chromium, L-carnitine, and green tea*
- Includes an energy-rich formula that supports mental alertness and physical stamina*
- Is protected by U.S. patents: 6,468,534 (extraction process for transfer factors from egg sources) and 6,866,868 (combination process of transfer factors from cow colostrum and chicken egg yolks)

Did You Know?

Yerba mate leaves are used in beverages throughout South America. Many indigenous peoples call yerba mate tea “the drink of the gods” and have used it for centuries to wake up and focus the mind.
