

Essential Fatty Acid Complex

Essential Fatty Acids are crucial for your health, and your body can't make them, so you must get them from your food or from supplements. Luckily, we have the perfect product to help you reach your Essential Fatty Acid quota.

Essential Fatty Acid Complex has four different types of oil to support your overall health, especially your heart and brain health!*

Super-Oils in Essential Fatty Acid Complex

FISH OIL

This is probably the essential fatty acid you think of first. Fish oil offers omega-3s, which are vital for your brain and heart health. You get the benefits of eating fish without, you know, eating fish.*

FLAXSEED OIL

Flax is one of the oldest cultivated plants known to humans and was used in ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia. Flaxseed oil supports your brain and heart health with omega-3s.*

SAFFLOWER O

Safflower oil comes from the safflower plant, which has beautiful vibrant yellow, orange, or red flowers. Safflower oil provides omega-6s, which support overall well-being and may support

BORAGE SEED

Borage seed oil comes from a plant native to the Mediterranean, and it is also a powerful supporter for your heart health.*

You get so many great benefits with Essential Fatty Acid Complex, especially since you get omega-3s and omega-6s from so many different sources! Your heart and the rest of your body will thank you!*
