

LUNG HEALTH

NOVEMBER
PRODUCT SPECIAL

Lung Health

The American Lung Association estimates that up to 60% of Americans live in areas where the air quality is bad for their health.¹ Your lungs are one of your most important organs, and it's important to support them.

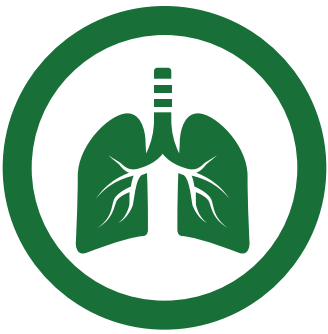

This month, we're focusing on a targeted product that supports this important organ:

4Life Transfer Factor Lung. The more you learn about this product, the more you'll love it! Let's run through what this product can do.*

Breathe Easy...*

4Life Transfer Factor Lung supports healthy lung tissue and respiratory function.

It's hard to exercise, talk, laugh, or even move if you don't get enough oxygen. Support this vital organ with 4Life Transfer Factor Lung!*

Remember that 60% of people in the U.S. don't live with great air conditions? 4Life Transfer Factor Lung helps your lungs eliminate air pollutants in the respiratory tract.*

Your lungs are pretty amazing, and they have natural defenses for getting rid of toxins and pollutants, but sometimes they need some extra support. This product can help your body detoxify and support your airway's natural defenses.*

If you need to calm down, take a deep breath. This product reduces oxidative stress in the respiratory system. *

We are The Immune System Company®, so this product helps boost your immune system, too!*
